Hallo Ariana

Oslo Jewish Museum will this year celebrate the EDJC with two days of Jewish Culture

Saturday night, September 4th, we again arrange a Klezmernight-concert in a place located in the old part of the city, where the early Jewish immigrants to Oslo first settled.

On Sunday September 5th, we have invited a well known art historian from Denmark, Mirjam Gelfer-Jørgensen, to lecture in the museum, about Jewish art through history.

There will be classical music and opening speeches (not quite clear yet.)

Best from

Dear friends,

Only three more months to go before this year's celebration of the EDJC, and surely you are all busy already with preparing the event.

We would like to remind you that it is crucial for a wide and efficient promotion of the EDJC that the different events should feature on the website from early on. So please send us your programme of activities as soon as possible, even if it is not quite complete yet. You can send us the information of any activitie which you have already confirmed so that we can put it on our site.

Of course you can also use the intranet and insert your programme by yourself. If you need any assistance in doing so, please let us know.

Looking forward to receiving your programmes ASAP, I remain

With best regards
