The 6th European Day of Jewish Culture is celebrated this year simultaneously in 26 European countries. On this occasion, we will focus the Day on "Cooking in Heritage" since tradition related to gastronomy gives us the opportunity to deep into the knowledge of a rich cultural diversity. During the Day, in all the cities of Spain, visitors will have the chance to taste the new "Sephardic sweet of walnuts, oranges and spices", winner of the First Confectionary Contest organised by the Spanish network. A contest of Jewish recipes is also organised in Europe for the Day. Find more information at: www.jewishheritage.org
